How to Register

Leadership Management Series participants may participate at any location provided they have access to a phone line, internet connection and computer with the latest version of Adobe Acrobat Reader. Participants will also need to access the GoToWebinar site, and ensure it is not blocked by any firewalls. Participants will receive a US domestic telephone number to dial into. This number is not toll free but is covered under any phone service with a long distance plan. Please complete the Individual Registration Form and send to AABB.

Continuing education credit will be granted only to those individuals registered for the program. NOTE: the audioconferences listed in this pamphlet are subject to change based on faculty availability and schedules.
