2026 AABB Peer Reviewers – Financial Relationship Disclosures

In keeping with Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) standards for commercial support, AABB asks everyone who is in position to control the content of a continuing medical education activity to disclose all relevant financial relationships with ineligible companies. ACCME defines an ineligible company as any entity producing, marketing, re-selling or distributing health care goods used on or by patients. (Providers of clinical services directly to patients are not ineligible companies). A relevant financial relationship is a relevant financial relationship in any amount occurring within the previous 24 months. Below are the financial relationships reported by the AABB 2026 Annual Meeting peer reviewers, who are responsible for reviewing all activity content and mitigating any potentials conflicts.

These peer reviewers have no financial relationship with any ineligible companies to report during the past 24 months:
