

Appendix – HIV Group O countries of risk - Africa

This list is subject to change due to updates by the Food and Drug Administration. It is possible that FDA has issued a more current list of countries. Users are responsible for maintaining a current list of the countries.

HIV Group O Countries:

Benin

Cameroon

Central African Republic

Chad

Congo

Equatorial Guinea

Gabon

Kenya

Niger

Nigeria

Senegal

Togo

Zambia

From the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Food and Drug Administration, Guidance for Industry: Recommendations for Management of Donors at Increased Risk for Human Immunodeficiency Virus Type 1 (HIV-1) Group O Infection, dated August 2009 <https://www.fda.gov/regulatory-information/search-fda-guidance-documents/recommendations-management-donors-increased-risk-human-immunodeficiency-virus-type-1-hiv-1-group-o>